INTRODUCTION

Landmark College, Inc. (the "Company") adopted the Landmark College Retirement Savings Plan (the "Plan") effective September 1, 1985. This Summary Plan Description describes the Plan as amended and restated effective January 1, 2009.

This revised Summary Plan Description supersedes all previous Summary Plan Descriptions. Although the purpose of this document is to summarize the more significant provisions of the Plan, the Plan document will prevail in the event of any inconsistency.

ELIGIBILITY FOR PARTICIPATION

Eligible Employee - Elective Deferrals

You are an "Eligible Employee" if you are employed by Landmark College, Inc. or any affiliate who has adopted the Plan. However, you are not an "Eligible Employee" if you are a member of any of the following classes of employee:

- Employees who are students performing services described in Code section 3121(b)(10).
- Employees who normally work fewer than 20 hours per week (as defined in Treas. Reg. section 1.403(b)-5(b)(4)(iii)(B)).

Eligible Employee - Other Contributions

For purposes of Non-Elective Contributions, the term "Eligible Employee" will have the same meaning as specified above under "Eligible Employee - Elective Deferrals". In addition for purposes of Non-Elective Contributions, the term "Eligible Employee" will be modified to exclude: Individuals who are not eligible for company sponsored health and dental benefits.

Time of Participation - Elective Deferrals

You will become a Participant eligible to make Elective Deferrals after you begin employment.

Time of Participation - Other Contributions

If you are an Eligible Employee, you will become a participant eligible for purposes of Non-Elective Contributions on the date you first perform an Hour of Service as an Eligible Employee.
CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE PLAN

Elective Deferrals

You may elect to reduce your Compensation (defined below) and make a contribution to the Plan on a pre-tax basis. These pre-tax contributions are known as Elective Deferrals. You may elect to defer up to 100% of your Compensation on a pre-tax basis. Federal law also limits the amount you may elect to defer under this Plan and any other retirement plan permitting Elective Deferrals during any calendar year ($16,500 in 2010). However, if you are age 50 or over, you may defer an additional amount up to $5,500 (in 2010).

Effective January 1, 2009, if you have fifteen years of service (disregarding any period during which you are not an Employee of an eligible employer) you may be entitled to make a special Code section 403(b) catch-up contribution. Contact your employer for more information about this special catch-up contribution.

You may elect to start, increase, reduce or totally suspend your elections to contribute to the Plan effective as of the dates established pursuant to Plan Administrator procedures. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may totally suspend your elections at any time.

The Plan Administrator may establish rules regarding the manner in which your elections are made. The rules may also require that certain advance notice be given of any election. Your election regarding Elective Deferrals is only effective for Compensation you will receive in the future. The Plan Administrator may also reduce or totally suspend your election if the Plan Administrator determines that your election may cause the Plan to fail to satisfy any of the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Saver's Credit

If your adjusted gross income is below certain levels, you may be eligible for a nonrefundable income tax credit of up to $1,000 (the "Saver's Credit"). The Saver's Credit is equal to a specified percentage of your contributions to certain employer-sponsored plans and to certain IRAs. You are eligible for the credit only if you are age 18 or over, are not a full-time student, and are not claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return. The Saver's Credit is subject to other restrictions. Please consult your tax advisor for more information.

Non-Elective Contributions

The Company may, in its sole discretion, make a Non-Elective Contribution to the Plan on your behalf if you have completed at least one (1) hour of service during the Plan Year.

Non-Elective Contributions will be allocated to the Non-Elective Contribution Accounts of each Participant eligible to share in such allocations in an amount designated by the Company to be allocated to similarly situated eligible Participants. The contribution will be allocated to similarly situated participants in the ratio that each Participant's Compensation bears to the Compensation of other such participants.
Non-Elective Contributions are allocated to your Account each pay period.

Rollovers

The Plan may accept a Rollover Contribution made on behalf of any Eligible Employee, regardless of whether such Employee has met the age and service requirements of the Plan. The Plan Administrator may establish procedures that regulate the method by which Rollovers will be accepted. An Eligible Employee who has not yet met any of the eligibility requirements of the Plan will be deemed a Participant only with respect to amounts, if any, in his or her Rollover Contribution Account.

Military Service

If you serve in the United States armed forces and must miss work as a result of such service, you may be eligible to receive contributions, benefits and service credit with respect to any qualified military service.

Limits on Contributions

The amount that may be contributed to the Plan on your behalf in any year is limited to a fixed dollar amount ($49,000 in 2010). In addition, contributions cannot exceed 100% of your total compensation.

Compensation

"Compensation" means wages that are shown as taxable wages on your IRS Form W-2. For any self-employed individual, Compensation will mean earned income. Compensation will also include any amount you elect to defer on a tax-preferred basis to any Company benefit plan. Compensation will include only that compensation which is actually paid to you by the Company during that part of the Plan Year that you are eligible to participate in the Plan for Non-Elective Contributions.

No more than $245,000 (in 2010) of Compensation may be taken into account in determining your benefits under the Plan.

Effective for limitation years beginning on or after 01/01/2009, for purposes of Elective Deferrals and Non-Elective Contributions Compensation will include certain amounts that are paid to you after you terminate employment.
VESTING

Participant Contributions

You will have a fully vested and nonforfeitable interest in your Elective Deferral Account and Rollover Contribution Account.

Non-Elective Contributions

You will have a fully vested and nonforfeitable interest in your Non-Elective Contribution Account.

DISTRIBUTIONS

Commencement of Distributions

Termination of Employment. You are entitled to receive a distribution from your Account after you terminate employment. The distribution will start at the time specified in the section titled "Timing and Form of Payment" below.

Late Retirement. If you continue working for the Company after your Normal Retirement Age, your participation under the Plan will continue, and your benefits will begin following the date you terminate employment. The distribution will start at the time specified in the section titled "Timing and Form of Payment" below. However, you may elect to have the Plan Administrator begin the distribution of your benefit at any time after reaching your Normal Retirement Age (even if you are still working) by providing the Plan Administrator with a written election that you want your benefits to begin.

Death. If you die, your Beneficiary will become entitled to receive your vested Account balance. The distribution will start at the time specified in the section titled "Timing and Form of Payment" below.

Normal Retirement Age

"Normal Retirement Age" means the date you reach age 65.

Timing and Form of Payment

Distribution for Reasons Other Than Death. If you become entitled to receive your benefit for any reason other than death and your Account is not required to be distributed in the form of a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity (defined below), payment of your vested Account may start as soon as administratively feasible with a final payment made consisting of any allocations occurring after your termination of employment. Your account is payable, in cash, in a lump sum payment or substantially equal annual, or more frequent installments over a period not to exceed the joint life expectancy of you and your Beneficiary. You may also choose to have the Plan Administrator use your entire Account balance to purchase an annuity contract, which will then be distributed to you. If you do not choose a form of payment, the payment will be made in the form of a lump sum distribution unless payment must be made in the form of a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity.

Distribution on Account of Death. If you die before distribution of your Account begins and such amount is not required to be distributed in the form of a Qualified Preretirement Survivor Annuity (defined below), distribution of your entire Account must be completed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of your death.

If you die after distribution of your Account has begun, the remaining portion of your Account will continue to be distributed under the method of distribution being used prior to your death. If your Account was not being distributed in the form of an annuity at the time of your death, the remaining balance must be distributed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of your death.

Cash Out

Effective January 1, 2010, if the vested amount of your Account does not exceed $1,000, your vested Account will be paid in a lump sum.

If the vested amount of your Account exceeds $1,000, you must consent to any distribution of your Account. However, the Plan Administrator may distribute your vested Account without consent after the later of your Normal Retirement Age or age 62.

In addition, you may elect to have the Plan Administrator begin the distribution of your benefit at any time after reaching your Normal Retirement Age (even if you are still working) by providing the Plan Administrator with a written election that you want your benefits to begin.

Beneficiary

You have the right to designate one or more primary and one or more secondary Beneficiaries to receive any benefit becoming payable at your death. Your spouse must be your sole primary beneficiary unless your spouse waives his or her rights to a Qualified Preretirement Survivor Annuity. You are entitled to change your Beneficiaries at any time and from time to time by filing written notice of such change with the Plan Administrator.

If you fail to designate a Beneficiary, or in the event that all designated primary and secondary Beneficiaries die before you, the death benefit will be payable to your spouse or, if there is no spouse, to your estate.

Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity

The Plan generally provides that if you are married, your account balance will be paid in the form of a "Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity" in which the benefit payable to your spouse for life after your death will be one-half of the monthly retirement income paid during your life. In addition, there is a Qualified Optional Survivor Annuity available in which the benefit payable to your spouse for life after your death will be 75% of the monthly retirement income paid during your life. However, if you obtain the written consent of your spouse, your Account balance may be paid in a form other than a "Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity."

Qualified Preretirement Survivor Annuity

If you die before the commencement of your benefits under the Plan, 50% of your Account balance will automatically be applied to the purchase of a survivor annuity for your spouse (the "Qualified Preretirement Survivor Annuity") unless (1) the total amount payable to your surviving spouse does not exceed $1,000, (2) you, with the written consent of your spouse, waive the survivor annuity, or (3) your surviving spouse waives such survivor annuity.

INSERVICE DISTRIBUTIONS AND LOANS

Other Withdrawals

You may receive a distribution from your Rollover Contribution Account at any time.

Reservist Distributions

Effective January 1, 2009, if you were a military reservist called to active duty for a period in excess of 179 days or for an indefinite period, you may receive a distribution from the plan while still employed from amounts attributable to elective deferrals and catch-up contributions. You must make the distribution during the period beginning on the date of your call-up and ending at the close of the active duty period. In addition, you must have been called to active duty after September 11, 2001.

Rules Regarding Inservice Distributions

The Plan Administrator may establish uniform procedures that include, but are not limited to, prescribing limitations on the frequency and minimum amount of withdrawals. All distributions will be made in the form of a single sum as soon as practicable following the Valuation Date as of which such withdrawal is made. Such distributions will be paid in cash. Only Employees are eligible to receive inservice distributions.

Loans

If you are an active Employee you may apply for a loan from the Plan. Loans will only be made to persons who the Plan Administrator determines have the ability to repay the loan.
You may not receive a loan if the sum of your new loan and the outstanding balance of all of your other loans would exceed the lesser of:

1. $50,000 reduced by the excess (if any) of the highest outstanding balance of loans during the one year period ending on the day before the loan is made, over the outstanding balance of loans from the plan on the date the loan is made, or
(2) one-half the present value of your nonforfeitable accrued benefit.

Loans must be repaid over a period not extending beyond five years from the date of the loan.

The minimum loan amount is $1,000 and the maximum number of loans outstanding at any one time is 1.

Loan fees may be charged against the Account of the Participant to whom the loan is granted and the Plan Administrator may adopt any administrative rules or procedures that it deems necessary or appropriate with respect to the granting and administering of loans.

You must obtain the consent of your spouse, if any, in order to obtain a loan.

Participant Self Direction

In General. The Plan Administrator may permit you to direct the investment of your Accounts. The Plan Administrator may establish uniform guidelines and procedures relating to Participant self direction. You may direct the investment of all of your Accounts.

Investment Elections. You may direct the percentage of your Accounts to be invested in one or more of the available Investment Funds. Your elections will be subject to such rules and limitations as the Plan Administrator may prescribe. After your death, your Beneficiary may make investment elections as if the Beneficiary were the Participant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Plan Administrator may restrict investment transfers to the extent required to comply with applicable law.

Investment Decisions. The Plan is intended to constitute a plan described in section 404(c) of ERISA. This means that Plan fiduciaries may be relieved of liability for any of your losses that are the result of your investment elections.

CLAIM PROCEDURES

You or any other person entitled to benefits from the Plan (a "Claimant") may apply for such benefits by completing and filing a claim with the Plan Administrator. Any such claim must be in writing and must include all information and evidence that the Plan Administrator deems necessary to properly evaluate the merit of and to make any necessary determinations on a claim for benefits. The Plan Administrator may request any additional information necessary to evaluate the claim.

The Plan Administrator will normally answer any written claim within 90 days (45 days if the claim relates to a disability determination) of the date all the information and evidence necessary to process the claim is received. However, if the Plan Administrator furnishes the Claimant with a written extension notice during that period, the Plan Administrator may take up to 90 additional days (30 additional days if the claim relates to a disability determination) to make its decision. Any written extension notice must indicate the special circumstances which make the extension necessary and the date by which the Plan Administrator expects to render its decision.

If the claim relates to a disability determination, the period for making the determination may be extended for up to an additional 30 days if the Plan Administrator notifies the Claimant prior to the expiration of the first 30-day extension period. The notice will include (1) the standards on which entitlement to a benefit is based, (2) the unresolved issues that prevent a decision on the claim, and (3) the additional information needed to resolve those issues. The Claimant will have at least 45 days to provide the requested information.

If a claim is wholly or partially denied, the Plan Administrator will provide the Claimant with a written notice identifying (1) the reason or reasons for such denial, (2) the pertinent Plan provisions on which the denial is based, (3) any material or information needed to grant the claim and an explanation of why the additional information is necessary, and (4) an explanation of the steps that the Claimant must take if he or she wishes to appeal the denial.

If a Claimant wishes to appeal the denial of a claim, he or she must file a written appeal with the Plan Administrator on or before the 60th day (180th day if the claim relates to a disability determination) after he or she receives the Plan Administrator's written notice that the claim has been wholly or partially denied. The written appeal should identify both the grounds and specific Plan provisions upon which the appeal is based. The Claimant will be provided, upon request and free of charge, documents and other information relevant to his or her claim. A written appeal may also include any comments, statements or documents that the Claimant may desire to provide. The Plan Administrator will consider the merits of the Claimant's written presentations, the merits of any facts or evidence in support of the denial of benefits, and such other facts and circumstances as the Plan Administrator may deem relevant. The Claimant will lose the right to appeal if the appeal is not timely made.

The Plan Administrator will ordinarily rule on an appeal within 60 days (45 days if the claim relates to a disability determination). However, if special circumstances require an extension and the Plan Administrator furnishes the Claimant with a written extension notice during the initial period, the Plan Administrator may take up to 120 days (90 days if the claim relates to a disability determination) to rule on an appeal.

If an appeal is wholly or partially denied, the Plan Administrator will provide the Claimant with a written notice identifying (1) the reason or reasons for such denial and (2) the pertinent Plan provisions on which the denial is based. The determination rendered by the Plan Administrator is binding upon all parties.

If the claim relates to a disability determination, determinations of the Plan Administrator will include the information required under applicable United States Department of Labor regulations.
YOUR RIGHTS UNDER ERISA

As a participant, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). This federal law provides that you have the right to:

Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other specified locations, such as worksites and union halls, all documents governing the Plan, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan description. The Plan Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Obtain, once a year, a statement from the Plan Administrator regarding your Accrued Benefit under the Plan and the nonforfeitable (vested) portion of your Accrued Benefit, if any. This statement must be requested in writing and is not required to be given more than once every twelve (12) months. The Plan must provide the statement free of charge.

In addition, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the Plan. The people who operate the Plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining your benefits or exercising your rights under ERISA.

If your claim for a benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules. Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of Plan documents or the latest annual report from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator.

If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or Federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the Plan's decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a domestic relations order, you may file suit in Federal court. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

If you have any questions about the Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

MISCELLANEOUS

Domestic Relations Orders

Your benefits under the Plan may be assigned to other people in accordance with a qualified domestic relations order. You may obtain, without charge, a copy of the Plan's procedures regarding qualified domestic relations orders from the Plan Administrator.

Loss of Benefit

Except as provided below, your account is not subject to any form of attachment, garnishment, sequestration or other actions of collection afforded creditors and your benefits are free from attachment, garnishment, account's process, or any other legal or equitable process. You may not alienate, anticipate, commute, pledge, encumber or assign any of the benefits or payments which you may expect to receive, contingently or otherwise, under the Plan, except that you may designate a Beneficiary.

However, you may lose all or part of your balance:

Under the terms of a qualified domestic relations order.

To comply with any federal tax levy.

To comply with the provisions and conditions of a judgment, order, decree or settlement agreement between you and the Secretary of Labor relating to your violation (or alleged violation) of part 4 of subtitle B of title I of ERISA.
Amendment and Termination

The Company may amend, terminate or merge the Plan at any time. However, no such action may permit any part of Plan assets to be used for any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of participants and beneficiaries or cause any reduction in the amount credited to your account. If the Plan is terminated, all amounts credited to your accounts will become 100% vested.

Fees

Your account may be charged for some or all of the costs and expenses of operating the Plan. Such expenses include, but are not limited to, investment expenses and costs to process loans, plan distributions and domestic relations orders.

Insurance

Your account is not insured by the PBGC because the Plan is not a defined benefit pension plan.

Administrator Discretion

The Plan Administrator has the authority to make factual determinations, to construe and interpret the provisions of the Plan, to correct defects and resolve ambiguities in the Plan and to supply omissions to the Plan. Any construction, interpretation or application of the Plan by the Plan Administrator is final, conclusive and binding.
